

Construction and Demolition Self-Haul Permit

Questions?

Please Contact:

Environmental Programs

(909) 774-4025

In order to be eligible for a Construction and Demolition Self-Haul Permit, the following requirements must be met, per Municipal Code Section 8.19.090.

Supporting documents must be submitted to Engineering Department- Environmental Programs, before the self-haul permit is issued.

Requirements for the C&D Self-Haul Permit
The contractor pulling the permit must have a valid Rancho Cucamonga business license.
The contractor must own all hauling equipment, that are clearly labeled with company name, address and phone number.
The contractor must perform all construction and demolition work (sub-contractors are not allowed to haul), and operate all equipment during the hauling process.
The contractor must be named on the building permit.
The contractor must provide a copy of vehicle registration.
The contractor must provide a copy of vehicle insurance.
Fill out a Waste Management Plan.
Pay $200 Self-Haul Permit Fee
