

TEMPORARY USE PERMIT CHECKLIST

PLEASE READ: Applications shall be submitted along with required materials and any application fee a minimum of 15 days prior to the event. Please note that applications are processed and fees are assessed only during business hours: Monday – Thursday from 7:00am – 6:00pm. Applications received outside of business hours will be processed and fees will be assessed on the next business day. Application fees will not be assessed if the required materials are not submitted.

If the required materials are not submitted and the application fees are not paid by the minimum 15 days prior to the event, then the application WILL BE DENIED.

It is recommended that the application be submitted at least 30 days prior to the event to ensure a timely review by staff.

The purpose of the Temporary Use Permit is to ensure that a temporary use is compatible with surrounding land uses and to protect the rights and minimize the adverse effects to adjacent residences/landowners. Per Development Code Chapter 17.104, temporary uses including but not limited to the following may be allowed, subject to the issuance of a Temporary Use Permit prior to the commencement of the activity or use and subject to the requirements within this section.

 - Haunted houses (including residential haunted houses)
 - Concerts and live outdoor entertainment
 - Certified farmers' market, as defined in Chapter 17.140
 - Swap meets, flea markets, art, cultural, and educational exhibits and displays
 - Parades, assemblies, fundraisers, and parties
 - Outdoor sporting events, marathons, mobile, and non-stationary activities
 - Other similar events designed to attract large crowds, and held on public or private property
2. Seasonal sales (e.g., Halloween, Christmas) on nonresidential properties, including:
 - Seasonal sale of agricultural products raised on premises
 - Christmas tree, pumpkin, and other holiday-themed product sales lots
 - Other similar seasonal sales activities designed to attract large crowds, and held on public or private property
3. Any event, promotion, or sale sponsored by a business that is held outside of the confines of the building on public or private property, including:
 - Parking lot, sidewalk, or other outdoor promotional sale of merchandise
 - Temporary or mobile food vehicle (e.g. food trucks, grocery trucks)
 - Temporary entertainment events
4. Temporary uses concurrent with a construction project or change of use on site, required for the duration of a construction project, including:
 - Temporary office modules (for tenant operations)
 - Temporary construction yards, storage, and staging areas (off-site)
 - Temporary sales office (on site and off site)
 - Temporary living quarters on active construction sites
5. Master temporary use permits for events occurring on more than one occasion.
6. Other temporary activities that the planning director determines are similar in nature and intensity to those identified above.
