HIGH SPEED RAIL ECONOMIC IMPACT

KEY FACTS

- First true high-speed passenger rail system in the nation
- Top speeds of up to 200 miles per hour
- 218 miles, all electric
- Travel time from Rancho Cucamonga to Las Vegas will take about 2 hours and 10 minutes
- Reduction in 325,000+ metric tons of CO_2 each year
- Ridership will start at 6 million passengers, growing to 8 million passengers by year 5 and stabilizing at just over 9 million passengers by year 10

STATION DETAILS

First high-speed rail station in the U.S. that will provide direct connections to air, bus, and local passenger rail – all in one place

Efficient and seamless transfers to/from downtown L.A. and beyond on Metrolink regional rail

CONSTRUCTION DETAILS

- Zero at-grade crossings
- 3 wildlife overcrossings across the I-15
- 4-year construction period

RANCHO CUCAMONGA

CUCAMONGA STATION

ECONOMIC IMPACT

10,000+ union jobs during construction and generate $2.9 billion in labor income ($721.8 million per year) across San Bernardino County, with the city of Rancho Cucamonga accounting for 716 jobs per year and $186.6 million in labor income ($46.6 million per year)

- 800 permanent operations and maintenance jobs
- The largest number of workers supported will be in new nonresidential construction, supporting approximately 470 jobs per year for four years; architecture/engineering will account for a large share of jobs supported, with 42 jobs annually

---

In the city of Rancho Cucamonga, operational expenditures will generate $42.8 million in economic output, while supporting 311 jobs and creating $31.8 million in labor income

- Secondary impacts from operational expenditures will help generate around $6.5 million in economic output throughout the city of Rancho Cucamonga, supporting 35 jobs. Business-to-business and supply chain impacts will account for the largest number of jobs supported outside of direct impacts with 28 jobs annually in food services, real estate, retail and more

---

Partnerships with educational institutions including Chaffey College

---

500 million fewer vehicle miles traveled each year/16,000 fewer short-haul flights each year

CUCAMONGA
STATION

YOUR DESTINATION AWAITS

Follow this transportation transformation at www.CucamongaStation.com